FootPrints

One night a man had a dream. In it he was walking along a beach with the Lord. Across the sky flashed scenes from his life. For each scene he noticed two sets of footprints in the sand, one belonging to him, and the other to the Lord.

When the final scene of his life flashed before him, he looked back, at the footprints in the sand.

He noticed many times along the path of his life there was only one set of footprints, and realized that they came at the hardest and saddest times of his life.

Bothered about this; he questioned the Lord saying, "Lord, you said that once I decided to follow you, you'd walk with me all the way.

But I have noticed that during the most burdensome times in my life, there is only one set of footprints.

I don't understand why that when I needed you the most you would leave me."

The Lord replied, "My dear child, I love you and I would never leave you. During your times of trial and suffering, when you see only one set of footprints, it was then that I carried you."

Skies always blue,
Flower-strewn pathways
All our lives through;

GATHERING

OPENING PRAYERS

Welcome in the name of Jesus, the Savior of the world. We are gathered to worship, to proclaim Christ crucified and risen, to remember before God our brother Fred, to give thanks for his life, to commend him to our merciful redeemer, and to comfort one another in our loss.

When we were baptized in Christ Jesus, we were baptized into his death. P: Eternal God, maker of heaven and earth, who formed us from the dust of the earth, who by your breath gave us life, we glorify you.

C: We glorify you.

P: Jesus Christ, the resurrection and the life, who suffered death for all humanity, who rose from the grave to open the way to eternal life, we praise you.

C: We praise you.

P: Holy Spirit, author and giver of life, the comforter of all who sorrow, our sure confidence and everlasting hope, we worship you.

C: We worship you.

P: To you, O blessed Trinity, be glory and honor, forever and ever.

C: Amen.

Almighty God, you have knit your chosen people together in one communion, in the mystical body of your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Give to your whole Church in heaven and on earth your light and your peace.

Hear us, Lord.

Grant that all who have been baptized into Christ's death and resurrection may die to sin and rise to newness of life and that through the grave and gate of death we may pass with him to our joyful resurrection.

Hear us, Lord.

Grant to us who are still in our pilgrimage, and who walk as yet by faith, that your Holy Spirit may lead us in holiness and righteousness all our days.

Hear us, Lord.

Grant to your faithful people pardon and peace, that we may be cleansed from all our sins and serve you with a quiet mind.

Hear us, Lord.

Grant to all who mourn a sure confidence in your loving care, that, casting all their sorrow on you, they may know the consolation of your love.

Hear us, Lord.

Give courage and faith to those who are bereaved, that they may have strength to meet the days ahead in the comfort of a holy and certain hope, and in the joyful expectation of eternal life with those they love.

Hear us, Lord.

Help us, we pray in the midst of things we cannot understand, to believe and trust in the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, and the resurrection to life everlasting.

Hear us, Lord.

Grant us grace to entrust Fred to your never-failing love which sustained him in this life. Receive him into the arms of your mercy, and remember him according to the favor you bear for your people.

Hear us, Lord.

PRAYER FOR CERTAINTY

P: God of all grace, you sent your Son, our Savior Jesus Christ, to bring life and immortality to light. We give you thanks because by his death Jesus destroyed the power of death and by his resurrection has opened the kingdom of heaven to all believers. Make us certain that because he lives we shall live also, and that neither death nor life, nor things present nor things to come shall be able to separate us from your love which is in Christ Jesus our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

C: Amen.

THE PEACE

THE MEAL

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING (spoken)

P: The Lord be with you.

C: And also with you.

P: Lift up your hearts.

C: We lift them to the Lord.

P: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

C: It is right to give him thanks and praise.

EUCCHARISTIC PRAYER

You are indeed holy, almighty and merciful God. You are most holy, and great is the majesty of your glory.

You so loved the world that you gave your only Son, so that everyone who believes in him may not perish but have eternal life. We give you thanks for his coming into the world to fulfill for us your holy will and to accomplish all things for our salvation.

In the night in which he was betrayed, our Lord Jesus took bread, and gave thanks; broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying: Take and eat; this is my body, given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.

Again, after supper, he took the cup, gave thanks, and gave it for all to drink, saying: This cup is the new covenant in my blood, shed for you and for all people for the forgiveness of sin. Do this for the remembrance of me.

Remembering, therefore, his death, resurrection, and ascension, we await his coming in glory.

Pour out upon us the Spirit of your love, O Lord, and unite the wills of all who share this heavenly food, the body and blood of Jesus Christ, our Lord.

With Fred and your holy ones of all times and places, with the earth and all its creatures, with sun and moon and stars, we praise you, O God, blessed and holy Trinity, now and forever.

Amen.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

"Thumbprints" In Memory of Helen Goettsche

Yes, spring has arrived and with it has come the beautiful array of budding plants and blossoming flowers. No one loved this time more than Helen Goettsche. Perhaps she came by this naturally as her father worked at a wholesale nursery in Maryland. After Helen and George were married on Valentine's Day in 1958 they lived in a small home on a small lot in Bala Cynwyd, a suburb of Philadelphia. Helen managed to create a garden out of a 10 x 10 space. Four years later they moved to a 4 acre plot in Doylestown, PA. Now Helen was able to expand her gardening to a 40 x 40 space. But first it meant clearing the land from sumac bushes and other debris. It was a joint effort accomplished by lots of hard work by Helen and George. Helen took tiny hemlock seedlings and set them in rows around the perimeter of the area. She created her own paradise, working from a greenhouse that George had added to their home. When the Goettsches retired to Florida she managed to bring 85 orchids with her.

The paragraph you have just read is only a preamble to what happened next. And now, in the words of Paul Harvey - here's "the rest of the story." A move to The Residence last August meant leaving her many plants behind. On her weekly visits to the Beauty Salon, Debbie and Helen would discuss horticulture, a subject near and dear to Helen. Debbie says these were very special times. When Debbie decided to add a dish garden to her front window of the salon for some added color, she knew who could give her advice. By the time Debbie had gathered all the necessary materials, Helen could no longer come to the salon. So on a Sunday afternoon in March Debbie went to Helen's bedside, spread out the plants, the dirt, the fertilizer and the container and they went to work. Helen was able to sit up and guide Deb in her first attempt at gardening. Helen's spirits seemed to rise. They had such fun. And finally Debbie took a handful of dirt, lifted it so that Helen could once more smell and touch and even get a bit dirty. For the moment the cancer was gone. They laughed together. Helen died April 12th. But the dish garden lives on just as life goes on for those who remain but REMEMBER!

P.S. The entire staff at The Residence always shows genuine kindness and empathy to our residents. But special moments arise from time to time when we are able to share these one on one. Debbie says this was one of those moments.

In Loving Remembrance

*The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me lie down in green pastures: He leadeth me besides the still waters. He restoreth my soul:
He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil:
for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies; Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.*
