GIRL SCOUT COUNCIL HOLDS BUSY SESSION

First Colored Troop In City
Will Be Sponsored By SS.
Peter and Paul Church

The Girl Scout Council met in regular session yesterday with Mrs. Harold W. South presiding.

A letter from Rev. Father Boniface, O. M. Cap., was read to the Council, asking permission to register with the organization a colored troop of Girl Scouts. Father Boniface states that adequate leadership for the troop, as well as sponsorship will be assured, therefore the Council gave permission for this troop to be formed, and appointed Mrs. Doerper to assist Father Boniface in this matter. It was learned that Baltimore city has 13 colored troops registered under their council, with properly trained leadership.

FIRST COLORED GIRL SCOUTS ENROLL SUNDAY

The first colored Girl Scout troop to be enrolled in the Archdiocese of Baltimore, and probably the first in the United States, will be formally instituted at SS. Peter and Paul Catholic Church at 2:30 p. m. tomorrow. Members of the local troop are mostly converts.

NATIONAL GIRL SCOUT LEADER ARRIVES HERE

Miss Frances Lee to Give Same Course That She Directed In Baltimore

Miss Frances Lee, New York City, educational consultant of the program division of the Girl Scout national staff, arrived in Cumberland this morning from Baltimore, where she gave a short course on the revised Girl Scout program to the Baltimore group. Miss Lee will give the same course here.

The training course, given at Girl Scout headquarters, began at 2:30 p. m. today with the troop committees. At 7:30 p. m. the Leaders' Association will meet Miss Lee.

Tomorrow morning, Miss Lee will give training to the colored Girl Scout leaders. Tekakwitha Troop No. 15, the first colored troop, is already invested and another troop is in process of formation at Metropolitan A. M. E. church, Decatur street.
