McKendree Church Notes Anniversary

The McKendree United Methodist Church, Paca Street, will celebrate its 127th anniversary beginning with the 9:30 a.m. service Sunday.

Guest speaker will be Bishop D. Frederick Wertz of the Baltimore Annual Conference. The choir will sing several selections.

Wednesday at 5:30 p.m. a covered-dish supper will be followed by an "old-fashioned" hymn fest led the choir.

Sunday, May 17, the Rev. Kenneth A. Tyson, district superintendent, will present the sermon during the morning service. At 3 p.m. a song-fest will be featured with guests from the city and surrounding Tri-State area. A light supper will follow.

The Rev. William M. Balderson is host pastor.

The anniversary committee is comprised of Anna Paige, chairperson; Florence Davis, Geraldine Gordon, Elizabeth Gordon, Thomas Peck, Vivian Colbert, Lucille Leath, Jo-Jacqueline Cooper, choir president; Virginia Williams and James Darr, organist.
